Gotta Catch 'em All! - Finding Federal Agencies in Northern California

| Project Title | Gotta Catch 'em All! - Finding Federal Agencies in Northern California |
|--------------------|---|
| Project Summary | This research-heavy project will fill in gaps of very important information for the SFFEB. We need to update our data to ensure that we have complete information on federal agencies in northern California. This project would entail a lot of web-searches, emails and calls to gather all the informa |
| Country | United States |

Project Description

Tasks

- 1. Update the current database of agencies (over 400) with data such as the number of employees, location, points of contact.
- 2. Research additional federal agencies not included in the database in the greater Bay Area, Sacramento Valley, Sa Joaquin Valley.
- 3. Create a searchable directory for online as well as a printable version.

Skills Practiced: Project Management, Research, Communication, Publishing

Required Skills or Interests

| Skill(s) |
|--------------------------|
| Data analysis |
| Editing and proofreading |
| Research |

Additional Information

The San Francisco Federal Executive Board supports 45,000 Federal Employees and 461 agencies & offices in the nine-county Bay Area. We also assist the nearly 110,000 Federal Employees in California who live north of Bakersfield.

Mission: We are the hub of the Bay Area Federal agencies, connecting through communication, coordination, and collaboration. SFFEB focuses on three areas of federal management: emergency preparedness, workforce development, and intergovernmental collaboration. SFFEB is a leader in cross-agency communication and collaboration, implementing national initiatives, and creating leadership development and training opportunities.

Values: Public Service, Integrity, Diversity, Stewardship, Community, Collaboration

SFFEB commits to holding seminars for VSFS interns on federal government job search and applications, the benefits of federal employment, and other topics.

Language Requirements

None